FAIR OPENING TWO DAYS AWAY — With the Missouri State Fair opening only two days away, crews are working feverishly to assemble the side show tents, stands, the giant midway and displays of products produced on Missouri farms. The grounds have taken on the appearance of a beehive with numerous personnel scurrying about and a continuous flow of heavy truck traffic in and around the grounds. The fair officially opens Saturday but Missouri news media representatives will, as is customary, get a preview Friday evening and night. (Democrat-Capital photo)

Hotel Sold To Local Businessmen

Bothwell Hotel will change hands Sept. 1, according to the purchasers, a newly formed corporation known as Harry S. Naugel & Associates. Naugel will be president and general manager of the firm and manager of the hotel.

The purchase price was not revealed, but the $175,000 figure mentioned in a previous story published in The Democrat-Capital "is near enough," according to a spokesman interested in the new firm.

The Boss Hotel chain, the seller, purchased the hotel from the Community Hotel Association for $150,000 a few years ago.

The purchase includes all real estate and furnishings, the purchasers stated. Employees of the hotel will remain substantially as they are at the present time, a spokesman for the new firm said.

The new hotel owners plan several improvements designed to make the hotel an institution of which Sedalians can be proud and recommend to their friends. They believe Sedalia should have a fine downtown hotel, and stated they intend to make Bothwell Hotel such an establishment.

As there has been considerable interest in fine downtown hotel apartments, Naugel stated that consideration will be given to the creation of such apartments as the situation arises.

The restaurant and bar facilities will be leased to LeRoy Wells, operator of LeRoy's Steak House on South Limit. He will continue to operate the steak house.

Wells has already begun to plan for the improvement of catering and bar services at the hotel. He will make the hotel bar and restaurant facilities available to the public for a longer period during the day, however, the exact hours have not yet been determined.

Wells plans to continue service (Please turn to Page 8, Column 7)

The Weather

Another Bridge Collapses Under Heavy Load

Pettis County officials continue to have difficulties keeping road bridges intact and the latest to collapse under a heavy load is a 29-foot concrete and steel I-beam bridge in the southeastern part of the county.

The bridge spanned a branch of Spring Fork Creek and is located about four miles southwest of Bahner and about a mile north of the county line.

Ironically, the bridge is just under a 30-foot mark set recently by the Pettis County Court for the erection of load limit signs. The court ordered all bridges 30 feet and over in length to be posted with weight limit signs.

County Road Engineer Royal Ragar said the damage to the bridge apparently occurred Tuesday, but he did not learn of it until Wednesday evening. The heavily loaded vehicle, which caused the bridge to collapse into a deep sag, left the scene of the accident, Ragar said.

Ragar estimated the load limit for the bridge at 10 to 15 tons.

The road leading across the bridge has been barricaded and closed to traffic.

Tentative Agreement

City Planners May Update 1955-56 Plan for Sedalia

The city of Sedalia has tentatively agreed to have the Hare and Hare City Planners update the plan for Sedalia drafted in 1955 and 1956. A meeting in the office of Mayor L. L. Studer was held Wednesday night at which time members of the council who were present tentatively agreed to enter into a contract for $12,500 for the project.

All members of the council were present with the exception of Robert Bader and Walter Jesse. Also attending the meeting was Sam Boyle, manager of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, and members of the news media.

Richard Kellenberg, representative of Hare and Hare, was present and offered a project proposal as requested by Mayor Studer the latter part of July.

Central Office Of Kellogg Is Located Here

The administrative offices of the IIT Kellogg Co., a division of International Telephone & Telegraph, were opened in Sedalia at 11th and Ohio Wednesday.

The Kellogg Co. is engaged in installing cables linking the Minuteman missile complex in this area. The offices moved here from trailers in Leeton.

The office here is the central administrative office, handling administrative work such as making out payrolls for six field offices located at various points in the missile complex area.

Some 40 people are employed at the new Sedalia offices, located in the building formerly occupied by the Italian Village restaurant. About 900 people are on the Kellogg payroll in this area.

Watchman Slugged In Robbery Try

A would-be robber slugged a night watchman-clean up man about 3:20 a.m. Thursday at the Coffee Pot Cafe on South Osage and escaped through a back door.

Mike Neill, 1205 South Montgomery, was struck and suffered a minor abrasion on the forehead as he started to get up from a chair after hearing sounds back of him. Three minutes later he walked into police headquarters to report the incident.

Neill described the man as a Negro who struck him, knocking him to the floor. A chair was also turned over and Neill's glasses fell under the table.

Police hurried to the rear door through which Neill said the person departed. They found the screen ripped loose, but the double screen doors were padlocked. The man apparently went through the upper part of the screen as he made his escape.

Neill went through the Howell Seed Store, next door, and out the front door and around to the police station.

Police searched the area but were unable to find the man described as wearing a sweater.

Bill Howell, a co-owner of the cafe, said Neill is employed to clean up the establishment after it is closed each night and remain in the building until other employees arrive about 4 a.m.

"We propose the following services by Hare and Hare:

Damage Suits Arise From Accident

Two companion damage suits filed Wednesday afternoon in Circuit Court seek a total of $29,500 as a result of a three-vehicle accident on Highway 65 five miles north of Sedalia Sunday night in which eight persons were injured.

Fred N. Cook and Elinor Williams Cook, husband and wife of Seymour, Mo., name Alva Leroy Rasa and Doris Jean Rasa, Route 4, and Richard Edward Roughton and Ernestine Roughton, 16 Saturn, Missile Manor, as defendants.

The Cook's were in a northbound trailer-truck which was involved in a collision with the Rasa's southbound pickup truck and the Roughton's southbound stationwagon.

The Cook petition seeks $23,000 from the defendants in compensation for alleged injuries.

Elston Cook, owner of the trailer-truck which Fred Cook was driving, seeks $6,500 from the same defendants. Also a resident of Seymour, Elston Cook asks $6,000 for damages to the truck and $500 for the loss of a cargo of watermelons being carried in the truck.

Congo Chief Quits; Army Takes Charge

Shouting Mob Hails Youlou's Resignation

BRAZZAVILLE, Congo Republic (AP) — President Fulbert Youlou resigned today in a dramatic announcement from the steps of his palace. The army temporarily assumed power.

A chanting mob of 10,000 Africans had surrounded the palace, shouting for Youlou's resignation. They hailed his announcement with jubilation.

The downfall of the little, 46-year-old priest-politician came on the third anniversary of this equatorial African nation's independence from France.

Youlou had been the Congo republic's chief executive from the start.

Strong gendarmerie reinforcements had coped with the crowd since morning, when workers marched to the palace to demand that Youlou get out.

Labor leaders have charged there was graft and corruption in his government.

After the announcement, the crowd began breaking up.

They walked off toward native villages excitedly talking about what they called "our victory."

Workers rioted Tuesday, calling for reform in government, abolition of Youlou's plan of one-party rule, and higher wages.

Then they stormed the city prison and liberated 400 inmates in a search for jailed labor leaders. Police fire killed five and wounded about a dozen.

Youlou Wednesday promised reforms in the government. His promises either came too late or were not accepted by the people.

There was no indication who might succeed him.

A former Roman Catholic parish priest who was forbidden to say Mass because of his political activity, Youlou had been believed to hold this country of 795,000 people in a firm grip.

State Tax Men Go Over County Tax Structure

Two representatives of the State Tax Commission, Edward Connell and Perry Burke, paid their annual visit to Pettis County officials Thursday morning to go over the county's tax structure.

The two suggested an increase in the county's ad valorem taxes. Connell also said he felt some merchants in the county were not carrying their fair share of the tax load.

Connell is supervisor of the commission's ad valorem tax division and Burke is an examiner. It is one of the duties of the commission to meet annually to advise and confer with county officers of all counties.

The commission representatives met with Judge C. Berry Elliott and Judge C. M. Purchase of the County Court, Assessor Jerry Trotter and County Clerk Jim Green in the County Court chambers.

'Hoodlum Priest' Is Dead

Heart Disease Fells Father Dismas Clark

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Rev. Charles Dismas Clark, 62-year-old "hoodlum priest" who helped rehabilitation of about 3,500 ex-convicts, died of heart disease today.

The Jesuit priest believed so strongly in the basic good of man, that he adopted his middle name in honor of the good thief who died on the cross beside Christ. He also gave that name to his rehabilitation center, Dismas House, located in a 21-year-old former school building near downtown St. Louis.

Through Dismas House doors have passed about 2,000 former convicts, an average of about 300 each year since he started the Father Dismas Clark Foundation in 1959. The center handles about 60 ex-convicts at a time. Father Clark also has helped an estimated 1,500 who lived outside.

Father Clark was a controversial man.

Some more hardened law officers derided the priest's center as useless, and Father Clark himself was embroiled in testimony over a lawsuit against a motion picture company which filmed his story under the title, "The Hoodlum Priest." But the former convicts who lived, ate and prayed with the priest loved him.

Dismas House was solemn and somber today. Some residents cried. Others sat around brooding.

Hold Pair In British Mail Robbery

LONDON (AP) — Two men were held today on charges in connection with Britain's great train robbery, and a man and two women were detained for investigation.

Police said a large sum of money — reportedly about 100,000 pounds ($230,000)—had been recovered.

Two men, both about 45, were arrested Wednesday night in Bournemouth, a resort on England's south coast, after they stopped a woman on a quiet street and asked if she could recommend lodgings.

The woman became suspicious and phoned the police. When detectives arrived, a fight ensued and the men were taken into custody.

Police said a considerable sum of money was found in a car and later another car was found about a mile away with a large sum of money in it.

No Pressure On Services, Maxwell Says

On Test Treaty Support By Top Military Brass

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor testified today that the Joint Chiefs of Staff agreed to support the limited test ban treaty without any pressure or arm twisting from civilian superiors in the Pentagon.

Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs, said the top military command was consulted in advance of the treaty's negotiation and had complete access to all cables between Moscow and Washington while the negotiations took place in Russia.

Taylor testified at a public hearing by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

He had previously told the Senate Preparedness subcommittee Wednesday that while the treaty had both advantages and disadvantages, the top military command believed that on balance it should be ratified by the Senate.

Taylor spoke of necessary safeguards in general terms, and there were demands from some members of the Preparedness group that he submit later more specific views on these safeguards.

Members of the Senate Armed Services Committee are sitting in with the Foreign Relations Committee on the hearings, as are members of the Joint (Senate-House) Atomic Energy Committee.

The two suggested an increase in the county's ad valorem taxes. Connell also said he felt some merchants in the county were not carrying their fair share of the tax load.

Connell is supervisor of the commission's ad valorem tax division and Burke is an examiner. It is one of the duties of the commission to meet annually to advise and confer with county officers of all counties.

The commission representatives met with Judge C. Berry Elliott and Judge C. M. Purchase of the County Court, Assessor Jerry Trotter and County Clerk Jim Green in the County Court chambers.

Eisenhower, returning from a visit to the Normandy beaches of France, said he had been asked by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to give his views on the pact. He said he would do so in writing in "studied fashion."

Back to School Shopping In Full Swing

VERSATILE PERENNIALS, blue jeans' sales increase every year at this time during the race to school shopping spree. Mrs. Marvin Keuper, Lincoln, and her son, Larry, 13,

BARGAINS IN A BEEHIVE OF SALES — Mrs. Albert Sedlor, Route 3, and her daughter, Branda, 10, who will be a sixth grader this year, have found a clearance table in their annual search for school wear this week. Mr. Sedlor will return next week from Viet Nam.

TWO FROM THE CROWD back to school shoppers. Mary Ellen Morrow, left, and Pat Helms, center, look at cosmetics in one of Sedalia's stores. Miss Morrow will be a freshman at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, N. Mex., this fall and Miss Helms will be a first year student at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg. Mrs. Eunice Hogan gives the young women advice in their selection.

Ann Landers

Answers
Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Should a married man with two children be allowed to date? When I say "date" I mean purely social—drinks, dinner, and nothing more.

My husband insists that this is acceptable behavior in our society and that everyone except hypocrites, prudes and squares does it openly. He also insists that those who don't do it openly are probably doing it secretly.

My husband says he believes in being completely honest with me and he hopes I won't force him to turn into a sneak. He also says a man appreciates his own wife more after he has been out with other women.

This all sounds reasonable to me when he is saying it, but when I am alone and start thinking about it, it doesn't seem to add up.

I should tell you that I was born in Europe where the ideas of home and family are quite different than in this country. Please advise me.—Mrs. B.

Dear Mrs. B: You sound as if you've just had your brain washed and can't do a thing with it. If you want to go along with this Design For Living it's nobody's business but your own. But please don't buy the idea that everybody does it and it's perfectly all right.

The married man who can't give up dating is like the 55-year-old matron who still wears her sorority pin.

Dear Ann Landers: Am I an unnatural grandmother? If you say yes, then there are a lot of us because many of our friends feel the same way.

My married children think it is my responsibility to sit with their youngsters whenever they have something they'd rather do. I have no objection to helping out in a pinch but it seems as if I am getting pinched four and five times a week.

We have two daughters and a son. I am worn to a frazzle running between their homes to care for their children. All the girls play golf, bridge, do club work and brag that their families don't tie them down. Of course they don't. But they tie ME down plenty.

Is there a way to say no without giving the impression I am letting the girls down? My nerves aren't what they used to be and I just can't take raising another set of youngsters.—EXHAUSTED

Dear Ex: The Lord knew what He was doing when He gave the young to the young. Some grandmothers love to sit—and for them I say fine. But too many older folks are run ragged and imposed upon by inconsiderate children who dump their responsibilities on tired grandmothers, because they know they can get away with it.

Dear Ann Landers: Am I being made a fool? This chick has gone out with me five times. She is a lot of fun and I like her company. But whenever we get to the front door she gives me the bum's rush and before I know it I'm standing on the porch with a silly grin on my face and there is a closed door between us.

This girl is 16 years old and I know darned well she has been kissed. So why am I getting the ice? The guys in our crowd have been giving me the horse laugh and I'm sick of it.

How much longer do you think I ought to go along with the brother-sister act?—NO HITS, NO RUNS, NO ERRORS.

Dear N3: And how do the guys in the crowd know? Have you been giving them a progress report? Maybe the girl figures her company is sufficient payment for the evening. I think you ought to date her just as long as you're lucky enough to get her to go out with you. She sounds plenty A.O.K.

Confidential to ALL TORN UP: Get off your knees, Girl. It's bad for your nylons and worse for your self-respect. This is no way to live. Publishers Newspaper to get a boy friend back.

Weddings Manager Halts Two Robbers

LYNN, Mass. (AP)—The 6 foot 2 woman manager of Weddings Inc., a bridal shop in the heart of Lynn, was more than a match for two sturdy robbers, one of them a six-footer, Wednesday.

Dorothy Stuart, 45, of Swampscott told police she was alone when the stocking masked bandits, apparently unarmed, invaded the shop and demanded money.

As she pulled out a cash drawer containing about $20 she said the larger man made an obscene remark, grabbed and tore her dress down the front, and tried to drag her to a back room.

She said she sent him reeling back with a well-aimed kick and that the smaller robber aided the larger out of the store, leaving the money spilled on the floor.

In the flurry, Mrs. Stuart tried to use a tiny knife on the robber but wounded herself, slightly, instead. She was treated at a hospital for a hip-and-back injury.

US Soldiers Are Eating Better Than Ever Before

By EDWARD S. KITCH

CHICAGO (AP)—The American soldier is eating more and better food today than ever before.

Maj. Gen. Thomas B. Evans, 52, head of the Defense Subsistence Supply Center headquartered in Chicago, says it costs an average of $1.05 a day to feed a member of the armed forces.

To feed the 2.6 million men in the armed services, Gen. Evans spends more than $2.5 million each work day. This makes him the largest food buyer in the United States.

To operate his far-flung food procurement and shipping system Gen. Evans employs 1,575 civilians, officered by 125 men.

Continental U.S. forces are served through 10 regional offices in the United States. There are 500 in the Chicago office.

"We do the job with a minimum of people," said Gen. Evans.

Armed forces kitchens are supplied through 20 supply points located close to troop concentrations.

Planning meals begins with a staff of dieticians headed by Marion C. Bollman, a civilian. She says menus are planned through 1965.

Menus leave the Chicago office seven months in advance of use, with large-quantity basic demands planned as much as 18 months in advance.

Meals are built around a food value of 4,000 to 4,200 calories a day.

Each day's menu must have one highly acceptable meat, such as steak, roast beef, stew. Less acceptable fare is offered as alternates at dinner or supper.

Armed services personnel are served steak three times a month chicken six times, swiss steak once or twice, roast beef three times, turkey twice, ham four or five times, pork loin, chops or roasts four to five times.

The American soldier consumes three times as much fruit juices as his civilian cousin. He consumes four times as much fruits and vegetables.

The soldier is furnished with all the milk he can drink. Fresh milk is purchased in those dairy countries nearest military bases. Everywhere except in Japan and Ko-

No Room No. 13

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Johns Hopkins Hospital officials explained Wednesday why there's no operating suite No. 13 there.

When four new suites were added to the 12 old ones, said a spokesman, they were numbered 14 through 17, skipping No. 13.

"A patient is anxiety ridden already by thoughts of undergoing surgery," said the spokesman, "and the knowledge that he is scheduled for general operating room No. 13 might produce unnecessary fears if he is the least bit superstitious."

The new rooms were opened Tuesday—Aug. 13.

Jumping to Conclusions... Do You Agree With Them?

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions—(and how many do you agree with?)
One big reason American women generally are poor athletes may be that they are poor sports. They are pampered and made to feel superior from birth. Therefore the only role many find tolerable in life is the winner's role. But in sports competition somebody always has to lose. That's why so few American girls are interested in athletics. They don't want to take the chance of losing—particularly in public.

A wife with a balding, potbellied, middle-aged husband usually feels serenely safe from feminine rivals. She couldn't be more wrong. This is the type of guy who keeps most of the champagne corks popping in night clubs—and pays the rent for most of the nation's love nests.
A phony, when asked what bores him most, almost invariably replies, "Phonies."
You can put it down as a fact that people who loudly object to contributing to organized charities are pretty stingy when it comes to private charity, too.
Never marry a girl who tries to catch the bride's bouquet at a wedding with a first baseman's mitt. There's such a thing as carrying eagerness too far.
A penniless bum is never as deferential to anyone as a millionaire is to a multimillionaire.
Toothaches are nature's way of showing that all men are equal.
Fat men who go to fat doctors always enjoy life more than fat men who go to skinny doctors.
Most fellows hate to sit in even a friendly poker game with a preacher. They can't help feeling he may have a secret edge.
One of the things that puzzles me most is why the first thing God did was to invent Monday. But He proved His compassion when He got around to creating Friday.
Never trust a man who says he's "just an old country boy trying to get along." Real country boys don't brag about it.
A poor woman who steals things from a department store is a shoplifter. A rich woman who steals things from a department store is a kleptomaniac. But they're both trying to get something for nothing.

Dim View
Of Athiest
Center Plan

SPEED, Kan. (AP)—This disappearing Kansas town with a population now down to about 80 takes a dim but philosophical view of reports that it may become an atheist center.

Mrs. Harold Chapman of Oakland, Calif., whose physician-husband inherited about half the town and most of its buildings from his father, confirmed Tuesday that her husband has offered the property to Mrs. Madalyn Murray of Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Murray, the woman who recently won a United States Supreme Court decision outlawing Bible readings and prayers in public schools, is due in nearby Stockton Thursday to inspect another tract of land. She proposes to locate an atheist colony in this area. Speed and Stockton are about 25 miles apart. The land offered near Stockton is open. The Speed property provides 11 buildings including a theater, hotel, bank, cafe, postoffice, small hospital and a doctor's office.

In Oakland, Dr. Chapman refused to confirm or deny his reported offer but Mrs. Chapman, here on a periodic visit to inspect the property, said it was true. She said Dr. Chapman is an agnostic, not an atheist, and she herself is a "strong Christian Science believer." She voiced the opinion towns like Speed are dying out and "anything that brings people into them would help the community."

Speed's Mayor Lyman Cadoret said its residents were "100 per cent against any atheists coming to town" but added "there doesn't seem much we can do."

Of Dr. Chapman, whose doctor-father was one of Speed's founders, Mayor Cadoret said: "He never has been too well liked here. He was a high-powered surgeon and too big for this town."

Elmer Parker, who once operated a dance hall in Speed, took an optimistic view.

"I think I'll reopen the hall," he said. "Looks like there's going to be a hot time in the old home town."

Cafe operator Irene Lyons who occupies one of the buildings owned by Dr. Chapman, didn't share Parker's view.

"I don't know what will happen," she commented. "I suppose I'll have to be an atheist in order to stay in business. In that case, I'll just close up."

Two Youths Held On Auto Theft Charge

ROBINSON, Ill. (AP) — Two Missouri youths were held today on car theft charges after state police said they were apprehended in one of six vehicles they admitted taking Tuesday.

They are James Pierce, 17, and Henry Hull, 17, both of Kennett, Mo. where police said most of the six vehicles were reported stolen.

The youths admitted taking four cars and two pickup trucks, police said. The two trucks and a car were wrecked in the Kennett area, police added.

Gov. Wallace Plans
To Enter Primaries

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George Wallace predicts he "will be met with tremendous response" if he decides to challenge President Kennedy in some of next year's primaries.

The governor said in a statewide television address Tuesday, "We will consider" entering primaries sometime after the current session of the Alabama Legislature ends next month.

Dates Ahead

Monday, Aug. 19 — Farm Family Day, Missouri State Fair.

Wednesday, Aug. 28—4-H Room Improvement Contestants will be visited for final judging of their room project.

Protein Foods

Protein rich foods take about one-third of Mrs. Consumers food dollar. These foods include meat, poultry, fish, eggs, cheese, dry beans and peas, nuts, and peanut butter.

The USDA Dairy Food Guide recommends two or more servings of these foods each day. Protein rich foods offer lots of returns in health and they should not be slighted, but by careful buying, perhaps more money can be saved here than any place in the food budget.

The price per pound of meat is often misleading. It depends upon the amount of edible meat in proportion to bone, gristle, and excess fat. Losses in fat and moisture during cooking is another factor. For instance, 1 pound of chuck will make 2 servings. Other comparisons of 1 pound purchases are: Precooked ham that is shankless will give 4½ servings, boneless Boston Butt will give 4 servings, pork chops 3 to 4 servings, broiler will give 1 and one-third servings, fillet fish will give 3 servings and shrimp without shell, will give 5 servings, liver will give 5 servings.

Generally a 2½ to 3½ ounce serving of cooked lean meat from beef, pork, lamb, veal, chicken, and turkey will provide one-third the protein allowance for a 25-year old man (23.3 grams is recommended by National Research Council). It does take about 10 slices of bacon, 4 frankfurters, 7 slices of bologna and 6 fish sticks, to provide 23.3 grams.

Eggs, cheese, dry beans, and peanut butter are good buys in protein regardless of the seasonal price variation. The following will buy one-third the amount of protein needed daily by the 25 year old man: 3 eggs, 4 ounces American cheese, ¾ cup cottage cheese, or 5 tablespoons peanut butter.

Dry beans and peas make a good contribution to the protein in the diet, but because they are not a complete protein, they should be used along with animal protein. The cost of these is very little.

Quick Dill Pickles

A quick way of making dill pickles has been developed by U. S. Department of Agriculture food specialists. This fresh-pack method changes cucumbers into crisp, tangy pickles without requiring the usual 3- to 6-week fermentation period. Flavor of the dills is excellent though slightly different from fermented dills.

Scientists in USDA's Agricultural Research Service, who have been studying home preservation methods for pickling fruits and vegetables, find that adequate processing in a boiling-water bath destroys spoilage micro organisms and inactivates enzymes that cause off-flavors. This finding led to the development of the new pickling method.

Here's how you can make 7 quarts of dill pickles (packed 7 to 10 per jar).

Fresh-Pack Dill Pickles

17 to 18 pounds cucumbers,
3 to 5 inches long
About 2 gallons 5-per cent brine
(¾ cup pure granulated salt per gallon of water)
6 cups vinegar
¾ cup salt, pure granulated
¼ cup sugar
2 cups water
9 tablespoons whole mixed pickling spice
Whole mustard seed, 2 teaspoons per quart jar or Garlic, if desired, 2 cloves, per quart
Dill plant (fresh or dried,
3 heads per quart jar
Dill seed, 1 tablespoon per quart jar

Wash cucumbers thoroughly with vegetable brush. Drain. Cover with the 5-per cent brine (¾ cup salt per gallon of water). Let set overnight. Drain.

Combine vinegar, salt, sugar, water, and mixed pickling spices tied in a clean, thin, white cloth; heat to boiling. Pack cucumbers into clean, hot, quart jars. Add mustard seed, dill heads or seed, and garlic to each jar; cover with boiling brine to within ½ inch of top of jar. Adjust jar lids. Process in boiling water for 20 minutes. (This is for altitudes less than 1,000 feet above sea level. To adjust, add 1 minute per 1,000 feet above this altitude.) Count processing time as soon as hot jars are placed into the actively boiling water.

Remove jars and complete seals if necessary. Set jars upright, several inches apart, on a wire rack to cool.

Furniture Cleaning
If furniture has a smooth, hard finish, it may need only cleaning instead of refinishing.

General Cleaning — A good, general cleaner for furniture may be made at home by mixing together the following ingredients: 1 tablespoon turpentine, 3 tablespoons boiled linseed oil, 1 quart hot water.

The turpentine and boiled linseed oil can be purchased at most paint or hardware stores. This mixture must be kept hot as you use it. Using a clean cloth, wet it in the solution and rub it on one section of the furniture at a time. Then polish with a dry clean cloth. In this mixture the turpentine serves to cut the dirt while the oil lubricates and polishes the wood.

This mixture should not be used on a shellac finish as the water may cause it to spot or turn white. A worn shellac finish should usually be removed, and the article refinished. To determine whether or not the finish is shellac, rub a small area on the underside of the piece with denatured alcohol. If the finish is shellac, it will soften.

When your furniture has been thoroughly cleaned, protect it with a good polish or wax.

White pots — If your furniture is badly soiled and shows white spots, rub 4-f or 4-o pumice powder into the surface with a pad of 3-0 steel wool that has been kept wet with lightweight mineral oil or paraffin oil. Always rub with the grain of the wood and rub lightly to avoid damaging the finish. Wipe off the mixture with a soft, dry cloth.

How To Use Water To END YOUR CONSTIPATION WORRIES

Here's how to get to the root of your constipation problem. Bring enough moisture to your lower colon every day. When food wastes are normally moistened, they will "move" as they should.

So do this. Take SERUTAN every day with plenty of water. SERUTAN is a gentle laxative aid that carries and holds water in your lower digestive tract to promote more normal regularity.

SERUTAN provides the proper moisture, bulk and peristaltic action to help keep you regular. This is utterly different from harsh chemical laxatives which may dry you out.

Get SERUTAN. Take as directed and enjoy daily regularity or money back from the maker.

Mining Company Town Moves to a New Site

TAHAWUS, N.Y. (AP) — The hamlet of Tahawus is packing its children, its bags, its houses and its churches and moving 10 miles down the road.

There the drab mining community of 600 persons will be transformed into Winebrook Hills, an 80-acre place with home owners, taxes, circular drives, and streets bearing elegant names like Henderson Lane.

It is suburbia with a difference. Winebrook Hills is in the middle of the highest peaks in the Adirondack forest.

Tahawus — a company town built in the rush of World War II — eventually will tumble into the open-pit titanium mine that has crept to within several hundred feet of Main Street.

The mine is owned by the National Lead Co. and its product issued as pigment in paint and plaster. The town, too, is owned lock, stock and schoolhouse by the Co. So when it was discovered that the titanium deposit extended under the village, the company ordered the move.

National Lead bought the site of Winebrook Hills in the town of Newcomb from a paper company, built sewers and a water system and hired Carl Tuxill of Weedsport to move 77 units, including houses, apartment dwellings, and two churches "the best view in the Adirondacks."

The exodus began the week of Aug. 4. Down the winding highway aboard a trailer rolled the log-cabin Episcopal church. A 1½-story house was moved on a separate rig. The trip took 2½ hours and only a couple of bashed highway guard rails testified to their passage.

The job is to be completed before winter sets in.

A shrug of the shoulders is the principal reaction of the residents of Tahawus — pronounced 'Tah' was locally.

"I can't see much difference, we'll have the same neighbors," said Francis Abare, a filter-operator who has been here for 17 years.

Abare lives in one of the barracks-like apartment buildings. In Winebrook Hills, he will live in the same apartment, with the same neighbors. Only the view will be different. The $49 a month he pays for his five rooms will go up $15 but he doesn't mind.

A few are unhappy. They are among those who rent houses from the company. Winebrook Hills will not be a company town. The houses are being sold to the occupants at prices ranging from $4,000 to $14,000.

A plant engineer told a reporter:

"Some of these fellows have been paying the same rent for 20 years—about $6 a room—at the same time getting the same wage as steelworkers in Pittsburgh. They've had no incentive to save, since they've owned nothing. Personally, I think it will be better. They'll own their own home and take an interest in it."

John Sudduth Family Honors 4 Birthdays

The John Sudduth family had a reunion Aug. 11 at Liberty Park, honoring Mr. Sudduth for his 70th birthday, which was Aug. 8. All seven of his children and 23 grandchildren were present. A basket dinner was held at noon.

Other members of the family celebrating birthdays in this month were: Paul Wensch, Larry Sudduth and Janet Sudduth.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Sudduth and Ruth, of the home, at Smithton; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wensch, Charles and Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sudduth, Larry, Kathy, Johnny, Diane, Ricky, Cindy and Patty; Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sudduth, Connie, J. W. and Teresa, Sedalia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sudduth, Alice and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sudduth, Gene, Linda, Barbara, Bobbie and Jimmie, Smithton; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reusch, Carolyn, Joyce, Mary Helen and Loretta, Florence.

"Those who want their own place are happier," he said. "Those used to living cheaply or those close to retirement are not so happy. We'll all have a better place to live, we hope; more room to spread."

In Winebrook Hills, Father Giroux' church will share a parking lot with the Episcopal church. He agreed with a smile that this would be good for the "dialogue" — Catholic-Protestant conversations on doctrinal differences.

John G. Hall, manager of the 400-employee National Lead operation here, said "a very high percentage" of the workers were buying the homes they live in. No one is quitting because of the transfer, Hall said.

Elizabeth Circle Meets At Liberty Park

Elizabeth Circle, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, met in August at Liberty Park. Mrs. Otto Rosebrock, chairman, welcomed Mrs. R. H. Rotermund, a guest, and opened the meeting with devotional and scripture.

The topic, "Responsible Leadership in the Work of the Lord," was led by Mrs. Rosebrock and Mrs. Hoover.

Project reports were given. Mrs. Rosebrock told of the international convention in Kansas City recently.

The mite box devotion was conducted by Mrs. Leland Harsch. A prayer letter was read from Morris and Lois Watkins and children, who are in Africa.

The meeting was closed with unison. After the meeting, shut-ins were visited.

Wasson Reunion And Picnic Held at Park

The annual Wasson reunion was held Aug. 11 at Liberty Park. After the invocation by Mrs. Bruce Ulmer, a basket dinner was served.

Attending were: Ben Wasson, Miss Frances Sterling, Mrs. Cora Duffield, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson and son, Jon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wasson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McMullin and daughters, Ann and Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McMullin and son, Jimmy, Mrs. Nona Redden and son, Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKenzie, Mrs. Kate Ream and daughter, Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Garrett and sons, Charlie and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith, Miss Eloise Rumsey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dillon and children, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie C. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. James Mullins, John Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wise, Miss Ona Ream, Mrs. Lillie Benscoter, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ulmer, Mrs. Eunice McMullin, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bellamy and son, Duane, Mrs. Julia Gower, Diane and Tony DeWitt, Catherine Anne Hall.

Present in the afternoon were: Leslie Sutherland, Miss Opal Ream, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hammond.

Ants in Their Pants

A pedestrian practice becoming more prevalent at downtown intersections in Sedalia is the display of impatience for a traffic light to change.

Pedestrians step off the curb, and edge themselves toward the flow of traffic. A driver making a right turn can scarcely tell whether his car will brush the edgers. The latter get so close to moving automobiles that a windblown coat may become caught one of these days — and you know what will happen. The injured pedestrian will sue the motorist for damages, charging he is a careless and reckless driver.

Maybe waiting for a light to change seems like an eternity, and it does for those who are always in such a moving frenzy. But can anyone's mission be of such gravity that a few seconds' wait for a light change will alter the course of his life.

Verily, not to wait, may alter his life into becoming a traffic casualty.

Some mothers with children in tow have been seen to leave the curb before the light changes or traffic clears. This is a poor example to set for children who later will be bombarded with safety slogans in school.

Then there are the impatient auto drivers—and truck drivers, too—who just can't discipline themselves into coming to a complete halt at a stop sign. They're called drifters and are about as unpredictable as a salt shaker on the table during sweet corn season.

Numerous times pedestrians have started to cross a street while expecting a driver to halt his car at a stop sign only to discover a drifter coming through. We wonder whether drifters delight in making jumping jacks out of pedestrians.

Some day we'd like to see a sign attached to the traffic standards directed to the attention of pedestrians:

"Heads Up. Stay on the Curb Until the Light Changes."

One for the drifters:
"To Live Longer, Make a Dead Stop."

And one for all of the Ants-in-the-Panters:

"RELAX. YOU'LL BREATHE EASIER."

The World Today

Embalming Tax Needle Examined

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you carry your heart in your wallet and it skipped a beat at the news from the House, relax. Nothing may come of it.

The House Ways and Means Committee Wednesday finally approved a cut in individual and corporate income taxes, starting in part next Jan. 1.

But already some congressional leaders are examining an embalming needle, just in case.

The tax-cut action was a sudden burst of energy from a committee which has been pondering the bill since President Kennedy first offered it Jan. 24.

At that time he also asked Congress for broad tax reforms. He wanted the cuts and the reforms to go together.

The committee proved more agreeable about the cut than the reforms. Yet, for most of 1963, this had been Kennedy's biggest program.

The spotlight was captured by the civil rights bill he offered later, although even he hadn't anticipated the need for it earlier in the year.

Committee approval of the tax-cut bill, however, was just a first step.

Now it goes to the rules committee before reaching the full House for a vote. This takes time. Perhaps the House will get around to voting in September.

Once through the House—if it gets through the House—the bill moves over to the Senate for the full treatment.

That means itself for a vote.

But Republican Senate leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, a member of the finance committee, has doubts Congress will cut taxes this year.

"It is not unwarranted," he said, "to think this matter might go over until next year." He thought action might be blocked by a civil rights filibuster—a view also expressed by Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., finance committee chairman.

They weren't alone. A Democratic member of the same committee, Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee, said he doubts the Senate will act on it in 1963.

If this wasn't gloomy enough for taxpayers hoping for more take-home pay, starting Jan. 1, another top Republican sprayed ice water.

This was Charles Halleck of Indiana, the Republican leader in the House. He sounded gloomier than Dirksen.

While Dirksen thought the House might pass the bill, even if the Senate didn't, Halleck thought the House might not pass it in the first place if it thought the Senate wouldn't.

From a politician's standpoint, 1964 would be a much better year for a tax cut—it's an election year—particularly if Congress granted the cut just before it adjourned in 1964 to start campaigning.

It would be fresher in voters' memories.

So, if not this year, then maybe next year, although Kennedy insisted months ago that a tax cut would stimulate the economy.

"The purpose of cutting taxes," he said, "is not to create a deficit but to increase investment, employment, and the prospects for a balanced budget."

It is no wonder this Congress has been called the tardiest in years.

Former President Harry S. Truman, in the 1948 presidential campaign, called the Republican-run Congress of that year the "do nothing" Congress.

It was a lot more active than this one which happens to be run by Democrats. It's full of uncertainties.

Wednesday, for example:

The Senate by a squeaky 47-44 vote approved a domestic Peace Corps for a two-year trial. Now the bill goes to the House. It's future? Uncertain.

At the same time the House Wednesday passed and sent to the Senate legislation authorizing $1-195,000,000 in federal aid for college construction over three years. Predictions on this? Unsafe.

This bill is similar to one the House passed last year. Because the House and Senate differed on it, it died. There may be differences again.

Everything will bog down for weeks if the Senate gets into a filibuster on civil rights, as it probably will.

— MRS. O. G.

DEAR POLLY — All of us are familiar with the trick of putting flour and seasonings in a paper bag and then shaking chicken pieces in the bag to coat them.

Perhaps others have also had the sad experience of having the bag break or get soggy. With several chickens to fry, I hit on the idea of using a medium-sized canister instead of a sack. It worked like a charm. I put several pieces of the chicken in at a time, clamped the lid on and shake the canister. It gives a nice even coating and I can knock the pieces on the side of the can to shake off the excess flour.

I certainly have picked up a lot of good pointers and especially like the trick of folding electric cords and sliding them in the cardboard rollers from toilet tissue for storing. This is a neat and clever one. — MRS. W. F.

DEAR POLLY — Do not throw away those soft bristled baby hairbrushes after baby outgrowths. They are wonderful for dusting knickknacks, picture frames, etc.

A small teapot makes an excellent combination pitcher and drinking glass when a child is confined to bed. Its cover keeps out dust and one can drink from the spout while lying down without danger of spilling. When the doctor orders liquids for the children, it is easy to get them to take the required amount of water or juices as they think it is great fun to drink from the spout. — MRS. P. B.

The Doctor Says

Respect Danger Potential Of the Power Mower

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The popularity of power mowers is increasing with everybody — except the 50,000 to 75,000 persons who suffer preventable accidents as a result of them each summer.

According to the National Safety Council, the chief reason for these accidents is that many do not appreciate what a dangerous weapon the power mower can be.

A rotary mower's blades rotate at between 3,000 and 4,000 revolutions per minute. They will cut through almost anything that gets in their way. When they strike such solid objects as metal, stones, or glass they may propel them with killing force.

If some solid object does clog the blades, no attempt to dislodge it should be made until the motor has been shut off. If the blades are rotating you must not only shut off the motor but also wait until the blades have stopped turning.

Anything that allows your foot to slip under the blade housing can result in a bad accident. This can happen if you start the motor with one foot placed on the housing. It can happen if the grass is wet and you are moving too fast. There is a very real danger that it will happen if you are moving on a slope.

If you are pushing the mower uphill, it may slip back on you, and if you are pushing it downhill you may lose your footing and slide into the mower. If the incline is not steep you should mow across the slope.

If your mower cannot be easily controlled this way, you should, as an added precaution, attach a rope to the mower and have someone walk along the top of the slope and use the rope to steady the machine.

Because one never knows when such a slip may occur, it is smart to wear steel-toed safety shoes while mowing with a power mower. Such shoes are no guarantee of safety, but they will minimize danger.

It is folly to leave the motor running when the machine is unattended for even a few seconds. And it's folly, too, to allow children to come near the mower while it is in operation.

Because of the dangers involved and the number and severity of accidents in recent years, manufacturers are bringing out several safety devices.

Among the most promising is a new mower with a powerful fan that blows downward so that grass, stones or anything else struck is thrown to the ground and not away from the mower.

Another device is an S-shaped blade to replace the straight blade. This, too, has the virtue of not hurling objects very far or very fast.

There is a new rubber blade that will cut grass but not shoes. It will throw rocks only about one foot from the housing.

So, even if you don't want to rush out and buy a new and safer model, you can take much of the danger out of your present mower at a very moderate cost.

The Mature Parent

When Illusions Die

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

She is beautiful, intelligent, a sociology major at college and the daughter of acquaintances of ours. Last summer she applied for a job at one of our city's settlement houses and was granted an interview.

On her way to its sium address she saw five drunken men, derelict and bloated, sprawled on the sidewalk in the full glare of June's bright morning sun. That evening in my presence she cried out to her father, "Like garbage, Daddy! Nobody even looked at them! Nobody even looked at them! I had to step over them! One had a big black bruise on his face. . ."

"There, there," said her father. "Don't take it so hard, dear. Nobody can help those Skid Row boys. They're past help. What you want to do is to think of the fine work being done by this settlement house you are going to help. . ."

"You make me feel sick, Daddy," she said. "You sound like a sports coach yacking about school spirit. Nobody cared about those men! You don't care! Nobody does —" and ran from the room.

When the young have been shocked by evil in the world, it is stupid to start preaching it good too quickly. If we do, we get written off by the young as condoners of the evil. We may lose the child upon whom evil has burst with clear and explosive impact.

Consider this opinion, please, during this summer while your young person is home from college with opening eyes.

I don't know why we are so afraid to share the indignation of the near-grown son or daughter who has suddenly become conscious of racial hatred, rats in tenements, breakdowns in nuclear disarmament negotiations or alcoholic derelicts. I don't know why we feel obliged to make soothing noises at them. Unless it is because their fresh young anger stirs uneasy suspicions of anger being accused of condoning the evil.

If we don't condone it, we should say so.

A child who has been loved does not need to be reminded of the "bright" side of human existence. He knows about it. So when he feels pain at its dark side, love is free to share it with him. It perceives that an illusion has died; and as love does not push grief comfort on a mourner who has just lost someone to death, it does not push it at the near-grown child who is mourning the loss of illusion to facts.

In fact, when everybody left—she was exhausted and felt like she needed a hospital bed herself—or a straight jacket. But it probably wasn't as bad a situation as she imagined, after all ministers are human.

The man and his wife are very grateful — he has recovered and is out of the hospital and her nerves have calmed down, and while she might recall the events now with a smile, it sure wasn't funny then. H. L.

Constant Bomber Guard on Border

(Editor's Note: Drew Pearson today reports from Turkey, southernmost member of the NATO, which has a border contiguous with Russia.)

By DREW PEARSON

ISTANBUL—If Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen, the staunch and grizzled GOP leader, is worried about safeguards under the test ban treaty he should come to Turkey.

All along the Turkish border, in fact all along the Middle East countries of Iran and Pakistan, there is a network of listening posts and nuclear detection stations which makes it impossible for any Communist country to explode any device in the air without its being known, and also makes it impossible for Russia to launch a missile without our knowing the details.

At one time this was classified information. But since the U-2 incident, Russia has known exactly what we are doing, and the American people have a right to know too. It is reassuring information.

There are no U-2 flights today over Russian territory. However, there are constant flights along its border, both by the high-flying U-2's, which go up to 70,000 feet and by the stronger, bigger KC 135's which can carry more equipment, but get up to only about 35,000 feet.

They perform three functions: 1, scoop up samples of the atmosphere to test for nuclear explosions; 2, take angle photos of Russian installations; 3, locate Soviet bases by bouncing radar waves back and forth in a miracle of electronics detection which makes it almost impossible for any country to operate in secret.

Elaborate Listening

Detection of Soviet nuclear tests in the atmosphere has become quite simple. U.S. planes along the Turkish-Russian border, and along other borders, fly with a sort of net, and, following the same principle as scooping up small fish from the water, scoop up samples of the atmosphere. From this, scientists can ascertain with unerring accuracy the type of explosion and its exact location.

Atmospheric sampling today is only to discover the amount of radioactivity in the air, since the Russians are not testing. If they resumed testing, however, U.S. listening posts would detect it well before the first test, just as U.S. authorities knew before Russia resumed testing in September, 1961.

This was detected by an elaborate set of listening devices in Turkey and elsewhere which monitor every military message inside the Soviet. Regardless of codes, it is im-

"... the Soviet Union has become one of the have powers. It has achieved its industrial takeoff, and dare not risk the capital it has accumulated in rash foreign policies, or even an imprudent social experiment at home. Nuclear weapons impose an overwhelming additional burden of responsibility."

Beef Roast And Chicken Prices Dip

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef roasts and chicken fryers get top billing at many supermarket meat counters this week-end.

Lamb cuts also will be priced attractively in several areas, and in a few regions turkeys are being pushed as a prime candidate for the main course at Sunday dinner.

Pork supplies continue to be relatively light, although up from the seasonal lows of a few weeks ago.

On both the East and West coasts, egg prices have risen from a week ago, although they are down a bit in some other regions.

Fresh fruits and vegetables remain abundant.

Melons, particularly watermelons, are coming in strong now to many markets. Cantaloupes are also widely featured.

Peaches, bananas, grapes, plums, blueberries and early apples will be among top values in many localities.

In the Midwest and some other areas, sweet corn will head the produce list as the crop moves along toward maturity.

Also ample and attractively priced will be cabbage, green peppers, cucumbers, red potatoes, carrots, celery, green and wax beans. Tomatoes are getting better and less expensive.

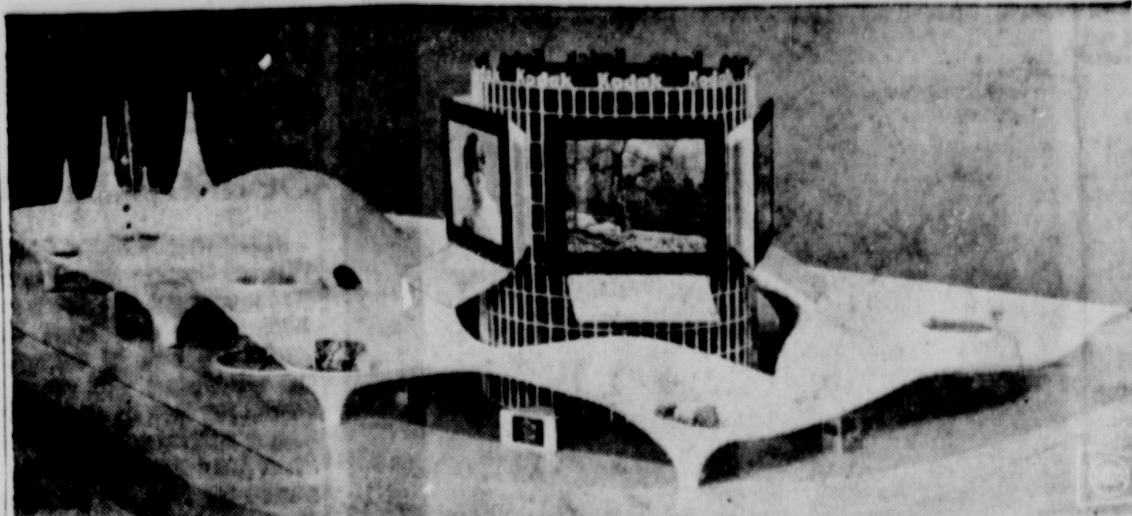

Many groceries in the Southeast are planning a wide variety of pork items at better than usual prices.

With Toehold On Pennant

Dodgers Leaning On Panic Button

By MIKE RATHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Is that the sound of the Los Angeles Dodgers leaning on the panic button now that their stranglehold on the National League pennant scramble has been reduced to a toehold?

Hank Aaron may have triggered the little round disc when he slipped a little round ball into the stands for a grand slam homer that gave Milwaukee a 5-3 victory Wednesday night and trimmed the Dodgers' edge over second-place

San Francisco to a mere three games.

Aaron hit homer No. 32 off Don Drysdale, capping a five-run seventh inning that sent the Dodgers reeling with their third straight loss and fifth in six games.

In three weeks, the Dodger lead has been trimmed by four games and the Giants have made up seven lengths.

"It's still a long way to go," said San Francisco Manager Al Dark, who watched the Giants get homers from Willie Mays and Willie McCovey but need a pinch-hit single by Felipe Alou to drive in the deciding run in a 7-6, 10-inning decision over fourth-place Cincinnati.

Third place St. Louis closed to within four games of the top, edging Houston 3-2 on Bill White's seventh inning homer. Philadelphia moved into a tie for fifth with Chicago, dropping the Cubs twice 7-2 and 9-3. The New York Mets defeated Pittsburgh 4-2.

Boston walloped the American League leading New York Yankees 14-7 and 5-4. Cleveland nipped the second-place Chicago White Sox 10 in 11 innings. Minnesota got by Baltimore 2-1 in 13 innings. Detroit beat Kansas City 5-2 and the Los Angeles Angels shut out Washington 2-0.

Drysdale, 15-13, had a three-hit shutout going into the seventh. With one out, Roy McMillan singled, Del Crandall walked and a passed ball moved the runners up. One out later, Drysdale intentionally walked Lee Maye and Frank Bolling singled to tie the score 1-1. Aaron followed with his drive, getting rookie Bob Sadowski his second major league victory.

The Giants started Frank Linzy, just called up from the minors, while John Tsitouris got the call for the Reds. A hit barrage ensued.

The Giants got 15 hits, the Reds 17, including a homer by Vada Pinson that put Cincinnati ahead 6-5 in the seventh inning. Jim Davenport singled to set up the Giants' tying run in the eighth, then led off the 10th with a double and rode home with the clincher on Alou's hit.

White singled home the tying run for the Cardinals in the fifth, then handed the Colts their sixth straight setback with his 21st homer. That gave the victory to Bob Gibson, 13-7.

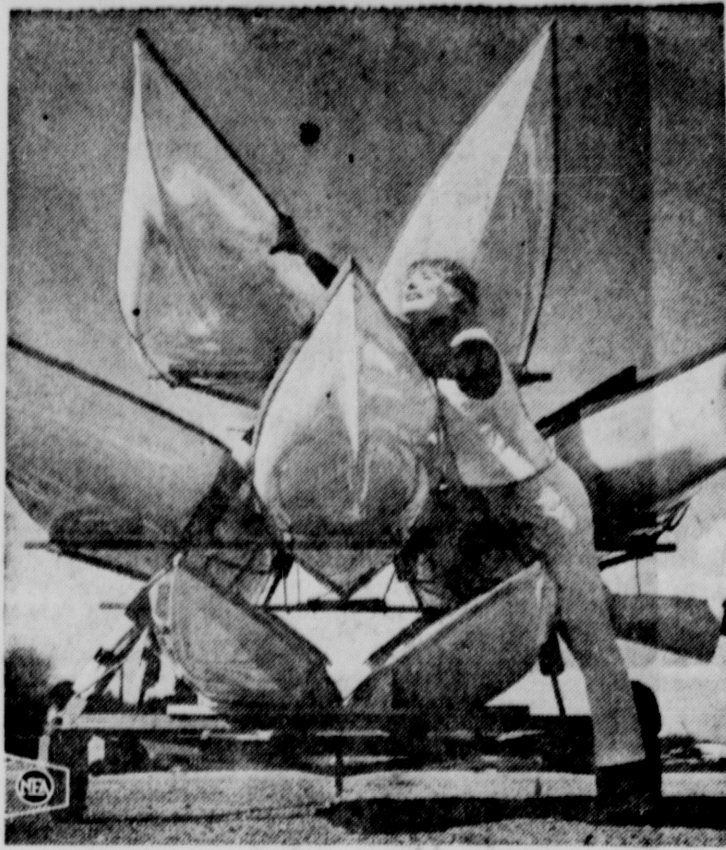

The Phillies overcame early Cub homers and rallied for four runs in the fifth inning of each game to sweep the doubleheader. Ernie Banks homered in the opener, while Steve Boros and Ellis Burton connected for Chicago in the second game.

The Phillies came back in the opener while Johnny Klippstein allowed the Cubs only two hits after taking over for starter Ray Culp in the third inning. Johnny Callison and Don Demeter hit homers as the Phillies won the nightcap behind Dennis Bennett.

Frank Thomas homered for the Mets, who pushed across the deciding runs in the sixth when Tommie Sisk walked Jim Hickman with the bases loaded and Donn Clendenon's low throw enabled another run to cross. Clendenon homered for the Pirates.

Fatal Head Injury Suffered At Ball Game

HILLSDALE, N.J. (AP)—A 9-year-old boy suffered a fatal head injury Wednesday while waiting for a ball game to start at Stonybrook Field Club.

Police said he may have been hit by a tiny stone hurled from a rotary lawn mower operating 100 feet away.

The victim, Leslie D. Katz, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Katz of Emerson, N.J., died of "brain damage" 2½ hours after he was admitted to a hospital.

Police said Leslie was warming up for the game when he screamed and collapsed. None of the other boys saw what hit Leslie. He had a large swelling under his right ear. A club busboy, Rudolph Pearl, later found a sharp, ¾-inch stone near the spot where Leslie fell.

Dates Set For Duck Season Here

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri Conservation Commission Wednesday set the dates for the duck, goose and quail hunting season for Oct. 25 through Nov. 28, established the state goose season for Oct. 25 through Jan. 2 with a special split season in the Swan Lake zone and set the quail season for Nov. 10 through Dec. 31.

The bag limit of four ducks a day or eight in possession can include no more than two mallards a day, or four in possession. This is double the limit on mallards of last year. The limit can include no more than two wood ducks a day or in possession and no more than one hooded merganser a day or in possession. Canvas backs and redheads again are on the protective list and cannot be shot at any time.

In the Swan Lake zone, which is bounded by U.S. 36 and 65 and by Missouri 5 and 240, the commission set a split season of Oct. 14 through Nov. 17 and Dec. 10 through Jan. 13. In this zone, the allowable harvest on Canada geese will close. This doesn't affect the rest of the state or other species in the zone. The limit on geese will be the same as last season—five a day or in possession. This may include more than two Canada or two white-front, or one of each.

The commission didn't set a bag limit on quail. This won't be set until late September. The commission also took these actions at its annual review of regulations:

Set the season on raccoons, skunks and opossum at the Busch Wildlife area in St. Charles County at Dec. 15-31, 7 p.m. to 7 a.m., for persons who purchase a Busch area hunting tag.

Announced the Kokanee trout can be caught in Lake Taneycomo on the White River next year. The Kokanee trout, very similar to Rainbow trout, will be flown in from Montana this month.

Extends the present rabbit season until March 31 next year. It had been set for Feb. 28 but next year is leap year, causing some confusion.

Announced that slingshots will be permitted for taking small game in 1964.

Big Eight Luncheon Tickets Sold Out

KANSAS CITY (AP)—All tickets to the Big Eight football kickoff luncheon in Kansas City Friday have been sold. All eight conference coaches will be on hand.

Wayne Duke, executive director of the Big Eight, announced the sellout Wednesday night, assuring a capacity crowd of about 650. The coaches will answer a barrage of questions by newsmen and fans. In the past, the coaches gave brief talks on their squads with no question-answer sessions.

Attendance Is Up

Fans Not Affected By Yanks' Lead

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Yankees' runaway in the American League apparently hasn't dimmed the enthusiasm of the fans in Minnesota where the Twins are making a strong fight to take over second place again.

A crowd of 25,014 in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area was on hand Wednesday night and boosted home attendance to 1,017,146—the third straight year the Twins have lured more than a million customers.

Last year, Minnesota's battle with the Yankees resulted in an all-time club record of 1,433,116. With 22 more home dates to go, the Twins could approach that figure.

The fans had a ball Wednesday night. They watched the scoreboard and cheered as the Yankees took a double beating from the Red Sox at Boston, 14-7 and 5-4, and the Cleveland Indians nipped the second place White Sox at Chicago, 1-0, in 11 innings on Willie Kirkland's homer.

Then they whooped it up as Bernit Allen's single drove in the run that gave the Twins a 13th inning 2-1 edge over the Baltimore Orioles who had been nipping at their heels.

As a result of the night's activity, the Yanks were eight games in front of the White Sox with the Twins just another length behind and the Orioles 10½ behind the league leaders. In the other AL night games, the Angels beat the Washington Senators at Los Angeles, 2-0, and the Detroit Tigers whipped the Athletics at Kansas City, 5-2.

The race tightened in the National League as the Milwaukee Braves beat Los Angeles 5-3, cutting the Dodgers' lead to three games over San Francisco and four over St. Louis. The Giants nipped the Cincinnati Reds 7-6, in 10 innings, and the Cards topped Houston, 3-2. Philadelphia rapped Chicago in both ends of a doubleheader 7-2 and 9-3. The New York Mets downed Pittsburgh, 4-2.

Allen, benched most of the season by a weak bat and hitting .195, lashed a Stu Miller serve into right field to score Vic Power who had doubled, with the winner.

Bill Daley, who hurled four innings of shutout relief collected his fourth victory. He has lost two.

Miller now is 4-7. Russ Snyder's fifth homer, in the fifth, gave Baltimore a 1-0 lead. Then Harmon Killebrew rapped one in the seventh, his 28th, to square accounts.

Kirkland's 13th homer came with two out and ended the In-the Yanks. He collected six hits and drove in six runs. The Sox first baseman clouted his 29th homer, a two-run shot in the eighth inning of the second game.

The crowning blow, however, was relief pitcher Jack Lamabe's first hit of the season—a three-run homer in Boston's five-run seventh inning of the first game. This was enough to burn up the Yankees and in the eighth inning both manager Ralph Houk and pitcher Whitey Ford, who was on the bench, were ejected by plate umpires Joe Paparella.

66Hearing rock and gravel is really tough on a truck. I learned the hard way, with other makes, that Dodge trucks handle this kind of work best. Dodge engines last twice as long as others I've tried. Dodge clutches don't give out in the sand and mud. And I've never had to replace a transmission, rear axle or wheel bearing on any of the four Dodge trucks I've owned. Now I have a 1962 Dodge with a 318 cubic inch V8 engine that handles nine-ton loads 10 hours a day with all the power in the world! D. J. Wainright, Gretna, Nebraska. That's Dodge truck toughness for you. And it's the kind of toughness that increases all the time. We call the reason, "running improvements." We add an improvement to our trucks as soon as it's ready, don't wait for announcement. Result: Each new Dodge truck we build will be the latest, toughest and most economical we can offer. But Dodge trucks are still priced lower than most of the competition, right in line with the rest. Talk to your dependable Dodge truck dealer about prices. About his liberal new finance plan. See how little it will cost to put a Dodge Job-Rated truck to work for you.

Freese Dairy Wins Crown In Babe Ruth

Freese Dairy took the Babe Ruth City Championship Wednesday night with a 6-5 win over Western Auto in a game described as a thriller. Third place in the tourney was won by Demand Shoes, with Hillcrest filling the fourth place slot.

In the championship game, Freese took the championship trophy in a tight, well played game. The winning pitcher for Freese was Rozier, while Hudson marked down the Western Auto loss.

Demand copped third place with a 7-2 victory off Hillcrest Lanes in the first game Wednesday. Brownfield was the winning hurler for Demand, with Vansell chalking down the loss.

Five trophies were awarded between the two tourney games. Batting champion for the year was Butch Rozier, who finished with an even .500 batting average.

Jim Thomas was awarded the most valuable player trophy. Rookie of the year was Larry Bechtel, who incidentally had a batting average of .384, good for a first-year player.

The manager of the year was Oscar Kraxberger, who headed the Adco squad. The good sportsmanship trophy went to Optimist, managed by Bill Watering.

White Clouts 21st Homer Of Season

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
"I'm just a singles hitter," said Bill White of the St. Louis Cardinals half jokingly in the clubhouse Wednesday night.

White had to be just half serious. He had just clouted his 21st home run, one short of his season high as a major leaguer.

No. 21 for the muscular first baseman came with two out and none on in the seventh inning and gave the Cardinals a 3-2 victory over the Houston Colts in St. Louis.

The Kansas City A's like the Colts, also were victimized by the long ball as Bill Bruton of Detroit hit a three-run homer in the ninth for a 5-2 Tiger victory over the A's in Kansas City.

Bruton's clout was a bitter blow for the A's Moe Drabowsky who went all the way and also homered to tie the score at 1-1 in the third.

Detroit scored first in the third on three hits and two walks. The Tigers went ahead again in the fourth on a single, a batter hit by a pitched ball and another single.

Kansas City tied the count in the seventh on a double, an infield hit, and another single.

Phil Regan got the Tiger victory. Both teams got eight hits with Detroit leaving seven base runners stranded and Kansas City five.

Stan Musial's single and Ken Boyer's double gave the Cards a 1-0 lead in the second.

Houston then went ahead in the fourth, scoring two runs on three hits. One of the runs was unearned. The Cards had three errors charged against them in the game.

St. Louis tied it in the fifth on an error, a sacrifice and a single to set the stage for White's blast.

Bob Gibson won for the 13th time in 20 decisions. He struck out 10 and walked no one.

"He had good stuff all the way," said Manager Johnny Keane, "except for one lull. But after White gave him the lead, he really poured on the coal."

Waterless Moon

Target of future astronauts, the moon has enormous plains that may be solidified lava. Ancient astronomers, in the belief that those wastelands were oceans, gave them fanciful names such as the "Sea of Serenity" and the "Ocean of Storms." Modern astronomers know there is no observable water on the moon.

CITY OF SEDALIA, MISSOURI
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON REZONING APPLICATION
WHEREAS, The Zoning and Planning Commission and the City Council of Sedalia, Missouri, have received application from Johnnie L. Vinson, Jr., owner of the following described property:

Lots 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174 and 175 of Lanesdale Addition to the City of Sedalia (27th Street and Ingram Avenue).
requesting said real estate be changed and rezoned from Zone R-1 to Zone C-1 and that said application be acted upon as provided in Ordinance No. 4479.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alabama's Sens. Lister Hill and John Sparkman combined with Oklahoma's Sen. J. Howard Edmondson to help eke out a cliff-hanger Senate vote for President Kennedy's Domestic Service Corps.

When a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats appeared Wednesday to have the measure licked by a 44-44 tie roll call count, administration leaders produced the three Democrats to vote "yes" and record a 47-44 passage total.

This was a victory of lean sorts for the President's proposal to set up a domestic model of the Peace Corps. He got Senate approval of a 2,000 member corps instead of the 5,000 strength he had recommended.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., forced acceptance of an amendment to limit the program to two years and to put a $10 million ceiling on the second year in addition to the $5 million limit already in the measure for the first. Proxmire's move carried 51-34. As introduced the bill carried no termination date.

House prospects for action this year have been considered almost nil.
